Conditions of Employment

The following Conditions of Employment have been compiled by Management and Members of Staff, to help you to understand the duties and obligations expected of you at the Young Services Club and Young Federation Motor Inn.

All Staff must have the same objective:

The Success of the Young Services Club and Young Federation Motor Inn

To achieve this, we must work together as a team.

Getting along with team members is part of your job. As a team member, your co-workers are counting on you to come to work when you are scheduled, do your fair share of the duties and lend a hand whenever it is needed.

Working within the hospitality industry involves long and sometimes odd hours. More often than not, you will be required to work nights and weekends, as these are our busiest periods. All applicants should be available for any shift over the whole seven (7) days of the week, with emphasis on shifts from Thursday evening through to Sunday evening, a priority.

All new employees are considered on a probationary period of six (6) months. The purpose of this is to monitor and review your performance within the initial stages of your employment. During your probationary period, you are considered as being “Temporarily Employed”. The Young Services Club reserves the right to annul the appointment of any new employee.
